

POSTING PARTY BOOKING SCRIPT

Hey Stephanie...are you free to text for a quick second?

Ok... here is the deal. I need some cute guinea pigs for a new MK idea I don't know if you've ever been to one, but I am perfecting a fun new Facebook Posting Party that is being introduced to consultants! I will be educating my team on how to do it but I need HELP so I can PRACTICE! I am offering the first 5 people who say yes to help me do that some FREE stuff... We will have so much fun! I would love for you to be one of the first 5. I promise it is totally painless... Can I give you the details in case YOU want to be one of my 5?

Yes! Soooo EASY! I create the group. You get 20 or more of your girlfriends in the group. I post stuff kinda like in my group...I do a live video and drawings. There are deals too! You get a free mascara for getting 20 ppl in the group and 20% of any sales that happen. I even give you a script to invite the guests.

Wanna give it a try??

I'm excited about it! What if I create the group and you can start inviting people and see what happens? And if you run short maybe you could beg someone in the group to add some people? What do you think about that? I am in new territory, so this is new for me too! LOL! I think it's gonna be super fun!

I'll send you a script to invite your girls...I'll set up a group and title it Stephanie's Beauty Bash! We can start it now and give you a couple days to get peeps in the group. I can do the live at (6pm on Wednesday 9/9)...does that work for you?
